

LBI Forum

How Can We Work Together to Build Wellbeing and Trauma Responsive Communities and Measure This Impact?

THROUGH THE LENS OF BEST-PRACTICE EVIDENCE AND SOUTH AUSTRALIAN COMMUNITY WISDOM

Who is the Forum For?

Leaders, Principals, managers, coordinators, researchers, program designers and thinkers who are interested in building wellbeing- and trauma-responsive communities, or sustainably embedding the science of wellbeing, resilience, growth and trauma across their community.

Forum Schedule

10.00am - Introductions

- Welcome and launch of our 2021 Yearbook
- What are “trauma- and wellbeing-responsive communities”?
- How do we at LBI partner with communities to build them?

10.20am - Guest Speakers (CQU Researchers)

- What is the research and recent evaluations telling us?

10.40am - Panel Discussion and Q&A

- Best-practice learnings from the field and across South Australia.

11.20am - Morning Tea

11.40am - Keynote: Associate Professor Dr Karena Burke Central Queensland University (CQU)

- What are the key tools, methods and processes to measure “community impact” and outcomes?

12.20pm - LBI Foundation: What’s New in 2022

12.30pm - Lunch and Networking

LBI Foundation is a Public Benevolent Institution dedicated to building a wellbeing and trauma-responsive Australian community, where vulnerable Australians have the foundations to thrive. We equip and empower a network of people, programs and communities to work together to sustainably embed the science of wellbeing, growth and trauma and make a difference within their community.

Forum Date:

Friday the 26th of November, 2021

Location/Delivery: Hybrid

Comfort Inn Regal Park, North Adelaide
Streamed by Zoom Webinar

Time:

10.00am to 12.45pm (Registration 9.45am)
Morning tea, lunch and networking opportunities will occur for participants attending in person.

Cost:

Free

Further Information and Registration:

Eventbrite (see www.lbi.org.au/upcoming-events)